

Resource Review Form

Note: Resources can be found at <http://pitt.libguides.com/infoethics/databases>.

Group member names:

1. Name of Resource:

2. What type of information does the resource contain? (Check all that apply.) For information on types of information and comparing sources, go to the Types of Sources tab on the research guide linked at the top of this page.
 - a. Scholarly/academic journal articles
 - b. Trade publication/journal articles
 - c. News articles
 - d. Books/ebooks
 - e. Other: _____

3. How are the results organized? (i.e. by relevancy, date, etc.)
 - a. _____
 - b. Unknown

4. How can you limit the results? (Check all that apply.)
 - a. Date published
 - b. Subject
 - c. Source type
 - d. Scholarly/academic/peer-review
 - e. Full-text online
 - f. There is no option to limit or refine the results
 - g. Other: _____

5. Was it easy to tell what type of source the results were? (books, journal articles, etc)?
 - a. Yes
 - b. Somewhat
 - c. No

6. Was it easy to access the full-text of articles that looked promising? Explain why or how to do so.
 - a. Yes.

 - b. No.

7. When would you, if at all, recommend this resource? What did you like about it/when would it be helpful?

8. What didn't you like about the resource?