

Studio Arts presents: Duos

Organized by the Studio Arts
Diversity, Equity and Inclusion committee.

Project Description

- Duos is a curatorial project. The first season will consist of artist talks that showcase two artists from the Pittsburgh community, with a focus on highlighting underrepresented and emerging artists.

Context

- The first event brought together two local artists that are gaining national attention for their work.
- Pittsburgh has a serious need for additional screenings and exhibitions for underrepresented and emerging artists.

Artist talks celebrating underrepresented and emerging artists

Project Deliverables

- Events that sharing meaningful work and create an opportunity for unique conversations.
- 1st event: Mikael Owunna & Alisha Wormsley
- 2nd event: TBD - happening this Fall!

Potential Impact

- The events create opportunities for future collaborations and inspiration for future projects
- These events provide much needed support to the selected artists and connect the University and its Studio Arts Department with the broader Pittsburgh arts community.

Acknowledgements

- Special Thanks to Scott Andrew for his support organizing.

